

Holiday Dinner at the Tam O'Shanter with Voices of Christmas Carolers

Start your holiday season with this wonderful tour sure to get you into a festive spirit! We begin with the Forest Lawn Christmas Windows, Light and Hope, featuring five beautiful backlit stained glass windows about the story of the Birth and early Childhood of Jesus. The windows in the exhibit are Betrothal of Mary and Joseph, followed by the Visitation between Mary and Elizabeth, No Room in the Inn, the Shepherds in the Stable, and the Flight into Egypt, which completed the Birth of Christ. The two windows, which round out the childhood of Jesus, are Jesus as a young boy in the temple at age 12 and a domestic scene in Joseph's carpenter's shop. Enjoy good cheer, warm hospitality and exceptional food in a cozy old world atmosphere at the Tam O'Shanter Restaurant. The Voices of Christmas carolers entertain. Men in top hats and ladies in their bonnets creating a joyous holiday atmosphere Dickens would approve of.

When signing up please choose: Prime Rib of Beef, Salmon or Roasted Turkey Platter (vegetarian option upon request)

Tour includes: Deluxe Motorcoach with water on board, Light and Hope Stained Glass at Forest Lawn, dinner at the Tam O'Shanter with the Carolers and tour guide.
